

Drama: Ideas for the Break

Watch a Musical

- Shrek the Musical (free on Netflix)
- Newsies the Musical (free on Disney+)
- Into the Woods (Broadway- free on YouTube)
(Movie- PG- $3.99 on YouTube)
- West Side Story (free on Hulu, $3.99 on YouTube)
- Wizard of Oz (free on Hulu, $3.99 on YouTube)
- YouTube- search for a musical you'd like to see—you might find it here! (or at least clips of great musicals like Hamilton and Dear Evan Hansen)
- Frozen 2 (sort of a musical) is now on Disney+

Write a scene

We've been practicing script writing... now try writing a whole scene—or even more! Come up with some characters, setting, plot, conflict and go.

Play improv games with your family

Search for “improv games” on the internet. (You will find lots.) Pick some that look good and set up an improv game night for your family. No materials needed.

Just say “yes...and...” have fun.

Check out

THEATRE NERDS.com

- Personality and Theatre quizzes
- Trivia
- News
- Interviews
- Links to great clips
- Fun theater facts/ videos

Create a design:

- Scenery
- Costumes
- Logo
- Soundtrack (pick songs for a show)
- Make-up
- Lighting

Read a script

- Playscripts.inc Set up an account (free) and you can read their scripts for free
- Google “Shakespeare plays online” you can read any Shakespeare play!