

English: Ideas for the Break

Watch a Holocaust Movie

- Boy in the Striped Pajamas PG-13 (free on Netflix, $3.99 on YouTube)
- Life is Beautiful PG-13 (free on Hulu, $3.99 on YouTube)
- CNN Voices of Auschwitz not rated- Documentary about 4 survivors (free on CNN.com)
- The Courageous Heart of Irena Sendler- not rated ($5.99 on YouTube)

AR

- Set a goal for the amount of time you should read each weekday. (30 minutes?)
- Check out an ebook from the Spokane Public Library- free!
- Search YouTube—for many books, you can find a teacher reading the whole book out loud!

noredink

Work on some grammar practice- you choose the topics. I've selected a lot of options for you to pick from on No Red Ink.

Vocabulary Practice

+
feed a hungry person

This website is a free vocabulary game. It is fun and easy to play, and as you play, money is donated to the United Nations World Food Programme.

You will watch how much food is being donated as you continue to play. There are also other subjects on here, too, including Math, Science, Spanish, and Geography.

Holocaust book

Finish reading your Holocaust book and tell a family member about it. Tell them the story, your reaction to the book, and how it showed our theme of Light in the Darkness.

Poetry

Try something creative. Google "poetry ideas" and experiment with different ways to write poetry.

