

~ • Guia 21 Dar and Ir • ~

What verb means "to go" in Spanish?

ir =

How do I conjugate ir?

"ir" When do I use it?

Unos ejemplos de ir:

What verb means “to give” in Spanish?

dar =

How do I conjugate dar?

“dar” When do I use it?

Unos ejemplos de dar:

Nombre: _____ Hora: _____

~ • Guia 23 Las comidas • ~

The food =

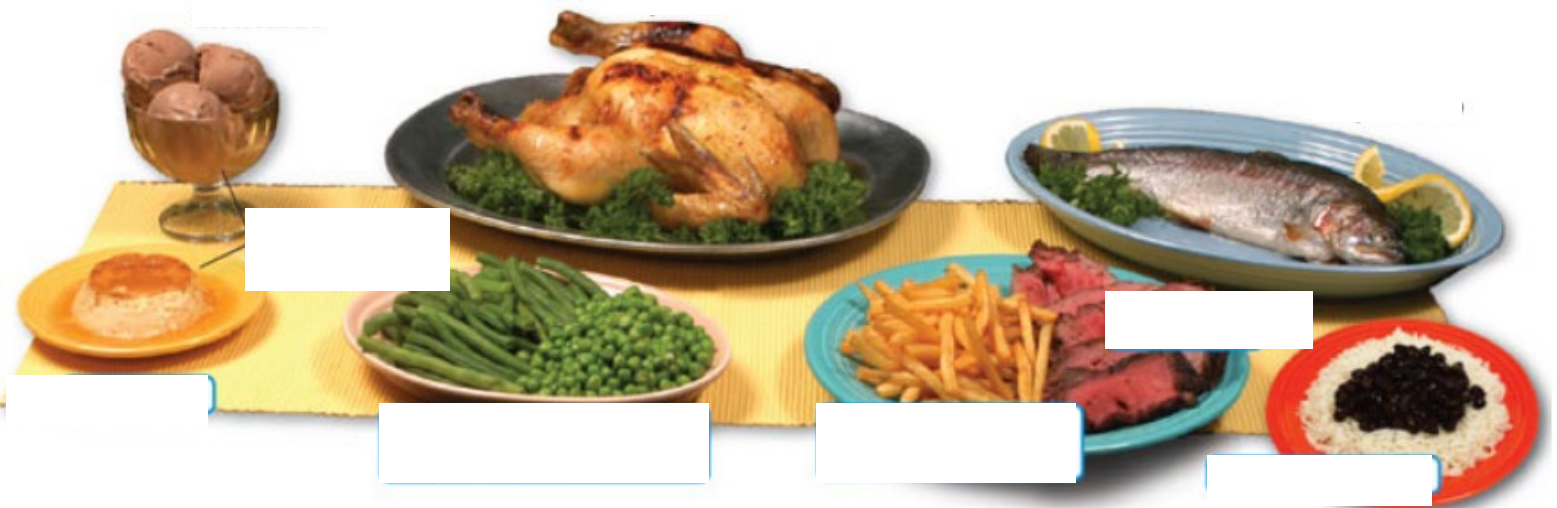

The meals =

Breakfast =

Lunch =

Dinner =

The refreshments =

The beverages =

The snacks =

En otras partes

El is used throughout Latin America. La is used in Spain. Dessert is usually la but el is used as well. In addition to el you will also hear las. El usually means cake, but you also hear el and la. In Mexico, una is a sandwich.

~ Guia #25 ER verbs ~

comer =

➤

➤

beber =

➤

➤

leer =

➤

➤

comprender =

➤

➤

aprender =

➤

➤

deber =

➤

➤

creer =

➤

➤

correr =

➤

➤

~ Guia #26 IR verbs and more ~

Ver =

Large dashed rectangular box for notes.

Vivir =

Large dashed rectangular box for notes.

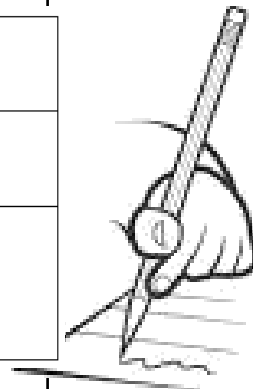

abrir =

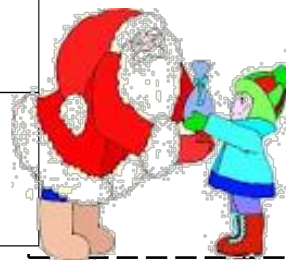

Large dashed rectangular box for notes.

escribir =

recibir =

¡Así se dice!

When you want to find out a friend's opinion about something, you can ask:

¿Qué crees?

You respond with:

Creo que sí. or

Creo que no.

When you think someone should do something, you can say:

Debes estudiar.

Debes aprender el español.