

Name _____ Date _____

Author _____

Title _____

Animals

1. Oftentimes the animal in a story takes on human characteristics such as talking or unusual qualities that make the animal special. Give examples from the text showing qualities of your animal and explain them.
2. List 10 descriptive words (adjectives) used by the author to paint a picture in your head of the setting. Example: arid, forested, mid 1940's, rural.
3. In what ways is the animal necessary to the plot of this story? List 10 adverbs that describe the actions of the animal in this story. Example: secretly, swiftly, ploddingly, cunningly.
4. Select at least 4 significant events in this book and write them in order of their occurrence.
5. Some stories are written from the point of view of the protagonist, while others are written with the point of view of an all knowing or omniscient "third person". Give a verbatim quote from the story that illustrates the story's point of view.
6. Did you like this book? Why or why not? Give 2 of your favorite or least favorite parts in the book to show your opinion.