

ART Tic-Tac-Toe

Directions: Choose one drawing from the options listed. You should complete one drawing per week.

Grading Criteria:

- ✓ Did you use value and shade your drawing?
- ✓ Did you fill the entire page by drawing large?
- ✓ Did you crop the drawing? Does it extend off the edge of the paper?
- ✓ Did you use good craftsmanship? Is planning evident? Did you erase well? Do you have clean lines?

Draw your bedroom using Van Gogh's bedroom painting as inspiration. Extra points for using bright expressive color. Use whatever materials you have: colored pencils, markers, crayons, etc.	Draw your favorite cartoon character. Include a relevant background.	Draw a career style portrait of yourself in 20 years. You can use any style you choose: anime, cartoon, realistic.
Create a drawing of something you saw that was so beautiful it almost made you cry.	Draw yourself inside your favorite video game, board game or alternative reality.	Draw your favorite meal. Include a full plate of food, desserts, beverages, eating utensils and napkin.
Design a house for the future. You may choose to illustrate the outside or inside view. Include small notes with details that explain your design.	Write a positive message to the world in graffiti style. You may decorate this in any style you choose.	Draw a miniature version of yourself cartoon style in an enlarged reality. (Think of the movie "Honey, I Shrunk the Kids").

You may use ANY paper you can find to do the drawings. You can use blank copy paper, lined paper, the back of an envelope, a paper bag, whatever you can find. You may also use any medium you have access to (pencil, pen, crayon, etc.). When you complete a drawing take a photo and email it to me at deant@spokaneschools.org .
