

Dear Family,

Since students will be out of school for the rest of the year, I am changing what I am asking of them in their Daily Routine. I want it to be simple, easy to follow, and effective.

Each day, please watch CNN10 with the caption on, listen and write who, what, when, where and how for one of the stories.

Friday: 10 minutes of Moby Max Social Studies.

For this week, please write three things that you see about each of the following pictures:

Settlers/Missionaries:

Northern Pacific Train Engine in Spokane, WA, 1884

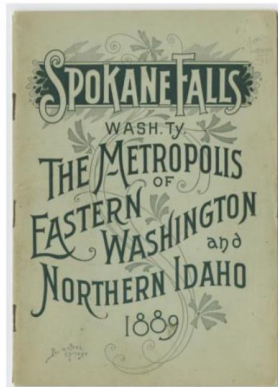

Spokane, WA in 1902: Notice the Court House and Chronicle Building, if you look carefully.

Spokane Falls in 1880. James Glover (Inset, N2121), regarded as the "Father of Spokane," arrived in 1873. He was one of Spokane's first permanent settlers and its first merchant. He purchased the land on which the townsite of Spokane began. (2121. Historical photo courtesy Spokane Public Library N2121 Room.)
