jueves 5-7	Review the directions for creating infinitive expressions on page 140. For these expressions, you put two verbs together, but you only conjugate the first one in the phrase. We are going to concentrate on the expressions tener que (have to do) and ir a (going to do), because these are the most important going into 2nd year. If you need another explanation or would prefer videos, watch these: Tener que: https://youtu.be/c7PTFIU5cyk Ir a: https://youtu.be/NDRLy_ub8Ts Acabar de: https://youtu.be/GK78bYuCZVk Then, follow this link to open a gimkit assignment and practice for 10 minutes, OR until you raise $300,000, whichever comes first: https://www.gimkit.com/play/5eb307539daa560022ba05ec
viernes 5-8	https://www.textivate.com/sequence-pekln1 - log in using my username (ebrazington) and YOUR student password (found in the files section on Teams, called "Textivate Passwords"- there is a video on Teams if this doesn't make sense in the help videos and links channel). Read through the story multiple times, and click on phrases to find out what they mean. Once you are comfortable with the story, complete the sequence of activities. Textivate will automatically log your practice, provided you logged in correctly. lunes 5-11	Log into Blackboard via Clever, and complete the assignments listed in chapter 4 under "4-10 Expresiones con el infinitivo." You can find the information covered here on pages 140-141. This is also the information you studied on jueves, so those YouTube videos may be useful. In a word document, write three sentences about what you are going to do this week using ir + a + infinitive. Then, write three sentences about what you have to do this week using tener + que + infinitive. Attach this word document to the teams assignment and turn in (see article in Help videos and links channel for help) martes 5-12	In your books, on pages 146-147, you will find the cultural reading for Chapter 4, "Las comidas en otras partes." Read the reading strategy, and do your best to understand the text. HINT: if you open today's textivate sequence, you can get help with the first two paragraphs (through the end of "El desayuno"). Tomorrow's textivate deals with the second half of the reading. On Textivate, complete the sequence: https://www.textivate.com/ffkln1. You must log in using my username (ebrazington) and YOUR student password (found in the files section on Teams, called "Textivate Passwords"- there is a video on Teams if this doesn't make sense in the help videos and links channel). OPTIONAL CLASS CHALLENGE: On Tuesday at 10:00 AM, join us for a competitive game! The game will either be gimkit, quizizz, or kahoot. Details on the game, including a link to both the game and a zoom meeting to join the live commentary fun, will be posted on Teams by 9:45 on Tuesday morning. I am pretty sure Sra. Lawhead and the kids at Shaw will join us, too! We will be practicing with chapter 4 vocabulary and infinitive expressions (ir + a + infinitive/tener + que + infinitive)
miércoles 5-13	In your book, on pages 146-147, review the cultural reading for chapter 4.
