

Garry Art Students (and Parents):

I hope you had a nice Mother's Day weekend. I enjoyed a sunny bike ride with my 78 year-old mother (who was also a middle school teacher). She regularly asks about my students and I love sharing about all the amazing artwork I'm seeing and sweet notes that students are sending my way. I do hope you are all hanging in there.

Weekly Assignments:

You have a crazy new assignment this week: "Loo Roll" Challenge. This assignment is located in the "Art Teams Site". This is a one-week assignment and will be DUE Friday, May 15.

- "Loo" is a word used in England for "toilet". This fun project requires you to find a toilet paper roll which will be the surface for your art project. If you do not have an empty (and clean) roll you could also use a paper towel roll or make your own roll with paper or cardboard.
- You will need to complete a reflection (attached to your assignment instructions) and turn it in with your project. There is no vocabulary requirement this week. However, I do hope you will use your understanding of "value" and "Color" in your project.
- I have linked a couple of Helpful Websites under the "WIKI" tab in your "Art Teams" site. (There is not a project demonstration video, but hopefully looking at some examples will help you understand the project and give you some ideas to get started.)

Pacing Plan for your Work:

You have 5 days to complete your "Loo Roll Challenge" and reflection. Each day you should plan to be spending about 20-30 minutes on your assignment each day. If you choose to work in longer chunks that is just fine. The below plan is a suggestion for completing your work by Friday, May 15.

Class Meeting:

Your class meeting will be on Thursday afternoon. I will send you an invite to this meeting through email and the meeting should also be posted in the "ART teams" site. You should get a reminder of the meeting on the day of the meeting and then 15 minutes before the meeting. It worked well to meet in smaller groups so we will continue to meet by class period. I hope to see you at a meeting (and if you can't make your scheduled time let me know and I can invite you to another meeting). Send me an email with any questions you might have!

Have a great week!
