

ELA 7 Accelerated Mrs. Mattes

Weekly Scope and Sequence for May 4 - May 7

I can analyze how biographical and historical facts are presented in a media text.

I can relate the concept of choices and consequences to the lives of prominent leaders whose choices have made positive impacts on society and the world.

Big idea: In Unit 3, we have been focused on the theme of choices and consequences and how one person's choices can impact the lives of others. You have read about Nelson Mandela, a leader whose choices changed world history and you have researched and created a presentation about a leader of your choice. This week will be revisiting Mandela to explore this theme further.
