

Washington State Government

(You will need your textbook for this week's assignments. A PDF version of the book can be found under the "Files" Tab).

Unit	Essential Questions	Goal(s)	Assignment	What is due this week?
Unit 3: Washington State Government	Distinguish the structure, organization, and limits of government at local, state, and federal levels.	I can Distinguish the structure, organization, and limits of government at local, state, and federal levels.	Washington State Government (Found on Microsoft Teams)  Due 6/7/20 (Next Wednesday)	WWII and Washington (This was assigned last Monday 6/3 on Microsoft Teams)  Upload your work in Microsoft Teams OR Email Mrs. Tramp

Directions: Please look up the definitions for the following words. They can be found between pages 410-412 or you can look them up online.

Vocabulary Term	Define the Vocabulary Term
Government (410)
Republic (410)
Democracy (410)
Federation (410)
Federal System (410)
Citizen (410)
Citizenship (410)
Democratic Republic (410)
Natural Born Citizen (410-411)
Naturalization (410-411)
Constitution (412)
Continental Congress (412)
Articles of Confederation (412)

Washington State Three Levels of Government

Directions: Using the reading on page 410 to define the three levels of government observed in Washington State.

Level of Government (Name Each Level)	Define
(Highest Level)
(Second Level)
(Third Level)

Parts of the Constitution

Directions: Using the reading on page 414 to summarize the three basic parts of the constitution.

Parts of the Constitution	Define
Preamble
Body	Body:  Separation of Powers:  Checks and Balances:
Constitutional Amendments	