

I will be assigning lessons on Moby Max which is accessible through the Clever portal.

It allows students to work at their own pace, reads the text if desired, provides interactive comprehension checks, tracks the time that they are actively engaged in the lesson, and provides assessments with immediate feedback.

Students should work through as much of the Animals, Part 1 lessons as they can.