Are there any prerequisites for the course?

Prerequisites:

- Must be 16 years old
- Have taken, or currently enrolled in, a CTE course
- Have a job where you are on the payroll and the jobsite is approved by your teacher

Graduation Requirement Credit: CTE Programs of Study: Business and Marketing, STEM, Family and Consumer Sciences, Health Sciences, Agriculture, and Skills & Technical Science

WHAT this course is about:

This is a great way for you to put what you have learned in the business classroom to use by working at an actual job site. If you are currently enrolled, or have previously taken, a CTE course and work in a business, management, or administrative related occupation, you may qualify to earn one credit for every 360 hours you work. You will work with your employer and a high school teacher/coordinator to create a valuable learning experience in the real world.

WHY take this course:

Course Learning Goals (including WA State Standards, Common Core Standards, National Standards):

Worksite Learning is defined as activities that occur at a workplace, providing structured learning experiences for students through exposure to a range of occupations. Students learn by doing real work. Learning in the workplace in an area of interest supports learning in the classroom and promotes the development of broad transferable skills.

Students Who Gain Exposure to the Workplace While Still in School:

- Make connections between real work expectations and the classroom.
- Begin to pursue education with a greater sense of purpose.
- Interact with positive adult role models in a reduced student-adult ratio.
- Experience enriched opportunities to learn, perform and be recognized.
- Develop new skills and experiences.
- Experience enhanced self-esteem.
- Expand their horizons and awareness of future work options; and
- Can experience a range of opportunities not traditional for their gender, race or ethnicity.

WHAT you'll learn:

- Worksite responsibilities.
- Where and how to apply work skills learned from Qualifying CTE Course.
- Actual on the job experiences.

WHAT you'll do:

Each week of work experience report hours to Instructor,
Using Office 365, keep records up to date and reporting forms completed.
Learn as much as you can from your job while you work towards pre-agreed upon Objectives.

WHERE this could take you:

This is a great way for you to put what you have learned in the CTE classroom to use by working at an actual job site. If you are currently enrolled or have previously taken a CTE course and work in a business, management, or administrative or service industry related occupation, you may qualify to earn one credit for every 360 hours you work. You will work with your employer and a high school teacher/coordinator to create a valuable learning experience in the real world.
