

Course Name: English Reading Comp/Writing

Duration:  1 Semester  Full Year

Grade Level:  9th  10th  11th  12th (check all that apply)

Are there any prerequisites for the course?

Yes, an IEP is required with a reading and/or writing goal.

WHAT this course is about:

Is individually based and addresses the individual reading and writing skills of each student. Focus may vary from reading environmental signs, various schedules, reading comprehension, learning to write and read personal information, to developing a paragraph.

WHY take this course:

To further expand and grow your reading and writing skills.

WHAT you'll learn:

- Basic mechanics of writing/reading
- Reading community signs
- Reading schedules
- Reading a variety of books
- Comprehension skills

WHAT you'll do:

Practice reading environmental signs, various schedules, comprehension, learning to write and read personal information, and/or developing a paragraph.

WHERE this could take you:

This class is a functional reading/writing course that will further your skills and increase the student's ability to increase their independence.