Are there any prerequisites for the course?

In order to access ICAN, you must have failed a class.

WHAT this course is about:

ICAN is a credit recovery course (either 6th period or 7th hour). The purpose of this course is to recover credits for graduation.

WHY take this course:

To get back on track for graduation.

WHAT you'll learn:

- How to use Blackboard and the SVL system.
- The content that you failed in your original course.

WHAT you'll do:

You will use Blackboard to access the content you have failed. You can pre-test to determine which content you will need to make up. As soon as you recover the credit, you will be able to leave the class or begin working on the next course you need to graduate.

WHERE this could take you:

GRADUATION!
