

Course Name: Journalism

Duration:  1 Semester  Full Year

Grade Level:  9th  10th  11th  12th (check all that apply)

Are there any prerequisites for the course?

None, just a passion for broadcast journalism.

WHAT this course is about:

We produce the weekly student news. Students brainstorm content and spend the week completing assignments, which may include researching and interviewing, filming, putting together film or audio, and meeting deadlines.

WHY take this course:

If you want to go into broadcast journalism, this is a great step. If you have a desire to be involved at LC and help cover all the clubs and activities that go on, this is also a great avenue to do that.

WHAT you'll learn:

You'll learn to keep deadlines, be organized, communicate with peers and adults, set up and use film and audio equipment, and how to use feedback to create timely, relevant news.

WHAT you'll do:

In this class you will collaborate with the news team and complete news assignments during school as well as cover sports, drama, music, and other events at LC.

WHERE this could take you:

This is a great avenue to be involved in the school leadership and could open doors for future broadcast journalism careers or public speaking affairs.
