

Course Name: Intro to TV/Video Production

Duration: 1 Semester Full Year

Grade Level: 9th 10th 11th 12th (check all that apply)

Are there any prerequisites for the course?

No prerequisites are required.

WHAT this course is about:

It's about learning professional video/audio production skills and applying them to projects that are relevant to the communications industry.

WHY take this course:

It's fun, creative and the skills you learn can mean money in your pocket and an exciting career in communications.

WHAT you'll learn:

- Cinematography
- Video/audio editing
- Professional equipment, software & processes
- Digital storytelling
- Filmmaking best practices

WHAT you'll do:

You and other students will build digital media projects like commercials, music videos and short films using professional equipment and editing software.

<https://web.microsoftstream.com/video/1f6cc1dd-6e4d-4e1f-bb8d-ad4af71c4a8c>

WHERE this could take you:

There are many jobs in video and audio production. You could work on the crew of a big-budget movie/TV show or run your own production company. The opportunities are vast. Digital media is all around us and it needs people who are creative and skilled to create it.

OPTIONAL Course Outline (“scope and sequence”, sequence chart, etc.)

<https://web.microsoftstream.com/video/1f6cc1dd-6e4d-4e1f-bb8d-ad4af71c4a8c>