Are there any prerequisites for the course?

Students enrolling in Intermediate Theatre are expected to have some previous performance experience within or outside Lewis & Clark High School.

WHAT this course is about:

Intermediate Theatre is designed for students with previous performance experience who want to further their acting skills. Special emphasis is directed to scene study, script analysis and performances. Students are required to perform individually or in groups.

WHY take this course:

If you enjoy performing and want to further develop your skills and talents, Intermediate Theatre will prepare you for Tiger Drama advanced classes as well as extra-curricular production and festival opportunities.

WHAT you'll learn:

Through lessons and activities in Intermediate Theatre, you will learn theatre content and skills that develop your confidence, creativity, and collaborative skills. You will learn about various theatre genres from musical theatre to classic and contemporary plays. You'll also develop your acting skills and become more confident being in front of an audience.

WHAT you'll do:

Performance skills are built through a range of in-class activities and performances including lip syncs, pantomime, scene work, improvisation, movement, and stage combat.

WHERE this could take you:

Tiger Drama classes are designed to maximize opportunities to learn transferable life skills applicable to any plans you have after high school. You will build your confidence, problem-solving and collaborative skills alongside developing your talents. Whether you plan to pursue theatre after high school or just enjoy being part of a program during your time at LC, you will have access to festivals, special events, productions, and workshop opportunities that will help you be successful no matter where you are in experience or interest level.
