

Name _____ Teacher _____

Topic _____

Researching and Comparing an Aspect of Ibo Culture

Your assignment is to examine one aspect of pre-colonial culture presented in Things Fall Apart, its significance to the Ibo community, and to explain how that cultural aspect has changed since colonization. You'll create a presentation that reflects your research.

Progress Chart

Research Task	Teacher's Initials
I have chosen a topic that demonstrates the culture of the Ibo people.
I have written an overarching research question.
I have written supporting research questions about my topic. If I can't write questions, I'll can use variations on these question stems. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Who is involved?• What happens?• When does it happen?• Where does it happen?• Why does it happen?• How do pre-colonial Ibo practices compare to post-colonial practices.
I have printed (or saved) 3 sources that answer my research questions.
I have saved a minimum of _____ images.
I have read, highlighted and annotated my sources.
I've taken notes and recorded them in the organizer.
I have recorded the URLs for sources and images.	