
THE STUDENT JOURNAL

The University of El Dorado Student Publication

THIS ISSUE'S FEATURED ARTICLES:

Career Day - 2

Gap Year - 3

Replace the titles of these articles and add titles for the book review and the obituary

WHEN THE STAKES ARE HIGH

The cracks on student gambling

Replace the title of this article

Date

Double click on the date of the paper. That will highlight the date . Type the new date of your paper.

Title of the paper

Double click on the title of the paper. That will highlight the text. Type the new title of your paper.

Your name

Double click on The University of El Dorado Student Publication. Replace that with Text by Your Name.

CAREER DAY HIGHLIGHTS

Text & Photos by Benjamin Smith

Newspapers with rows and rows of text can be uninviting to readers. Give their eyes a visual break by using pull quotes. Usually set in bigger font than the body text, it can be used to highlight a key point of the article, or serve as a graphic element. Captions also

Replace the title of this article

Artwork can bring life to your newsletter, too. For this, you can enlist the help of artistic students. Include a cartoon in your editorial piece or portraits of well-known personalities in school. Have the artist create a sketch of your school mascot, or even make one for your own school

The text on this page has been left so you can see the layout of the photo and the text. All of this text should be replaced.

Newspaper articles are always written in columns.

contributions like poems or photos are welcome, too. Have some space for helpful information like important academic calendar dates and upcoming events. Last but not the least, strive to abide by the highest journalistic standards of accuracy and fairness. These will serve as your protection against legal trouble.

Students interacted with over 20 companies spanning 15 industries in the school's biggest Career Day to date.

BOOK REVIEW

Book Review Heading

Go to the black panel, click on text, click on Add a subheading, and then drag Add a subheading over to this page where ever you want to put the heading Book Review. Double click on the heading to change the style, size and color of the text. The style and size of headings on previous pages is: League Gothic 27. The color is dark gray.

Picture of the book cover

Find a picture of the book cover and upload it into Canva. Then drag it into this page. You can resize the photo by dragging the corners.

The Book Review

Now type your book review. The font for this section is Lora 10. That's the same font type and size as was used in the paragraphs on other pages. Notice none of the paragraphs are indented.

Newspaper articles are always written in columns.

OBITUARY

Text styles and sizes

Titles of articles: League Gothic 26

Text in articles: Lora 10

Newspaper articles are always written in columns.