

Research questions/topics for digital citizenship

Digital Access

- How can low-income students/families get secure Internet access?
- What kinds of technology assists students with disabilities (learning, reading, etc.)?

Digital Commerce

- What steps should teens take to safely purchase items online?
- What steps should teens take to safely sell items online?
- What steps should teens take to guard against identity theft?

Digital Communication

- When is it appropriate or inappropriate to use email to communicate?
- What are the appropriate or inappropriate uses for cell phones?
- What are the appropriate or inappropriate uses for social media?
- What can be done to deal with cyberbullying?

Digital Literacy

- How can teens evaluate online sources (CRAAP test)?
- How can teens guard against gathering misinformation from social media sites (fact-checking sites)?

Digital Etiquette

- How can teens use etiquette when emailing socially or for business?
- How can teens use etiquette when using cell phones socially or for business?
- How can teens use etiquette when using social media? (What should and should not be shared online)?
- How can teens deal with cyberbullying?

Digital Law

- What are the laws pertaining to sharing or downloading files such as copy-righted music or movies?
- What is an Acceptable Use Policy? How does it pertain to by-passing firewalls or other network protections?
- What are the laws pertaining to software piracy?
- How can students comply with copyright and fair use laws?

Digital Health and Wellness

- How can computer users deal with computer eye strain?
- How can computer users deal with repetitive stress injuries?

- How can computer users deal with back pain?
- How can computer users deal with video game addiction?
- How can computer users deal with social media addiction?
- How can computer use contribute to mental health issues?

Digital Security

- How can teens protect themselves from identity theft.
- How can teens protect their personal computers from viruses/hackers?
- How can teens protect themselves from predators or online stalkers?