

Religion
Chi—personal god	131, 172
Chukwu—the supreme being of the Ibo religion	179
Agbala—an older woman, also called the Oracle of the Prophet of the Ibo	100, 203, 16, 49
Ani—female goddess of the earth and fertility in the Igbo culture	146
Superstitions
Iyi-uwa—a special kind of stone that forms the link between an ogbanje and the spirit world. Only if the iyi-uwa was discovered and destroyed would the child not die.	80
Ogbanje—a changeling; a child who repeatedly dies and returns to its mother to be reborn. It is almost impossible to bring up an ogbanje child without it dying, unless its iyi-uwa is first found and destroyed.	77-85
Dark moonless nights	9-10
Evil Forest
Music
Udu—a type of drum made from pottery	6, 44
Ogene –a kind of gong	6
Ekwe – drum made from wood	6,120
Weddings
Bride price –part of the betrothal ceremony where the dowry is paid	73
Bridal clothing, hair	71
Wedding	110-113
Funerals
Funeral	121-124
Hospitality
Kola nut—food used to greet visitors and guests	19, 117, 165
Palm wine—fermented palm sap made for celebration and ceremony	19, 117
Justice
Egwugwu trial—a man who impersonates one of the ancestral spirits of the village. The egwugwu serve as judges in the community.	187, 87-94
Ezeugo – a man of high status calls for justice at a village gathering	10
Ilo—the village green where assemblies for sports, discussion, and so on take place	42
Okwonko banished after accidentally shooting a boy	124
Can't take Okwonko's body down	207
Ibo town
Ilo—the village green where assemblies for sports, discussion, and so on take place	42
Obi—large living quarter for the head of the family	14, 129, 163
Compound – collection of houses for one family	14
Medicine house—Okwonko keeps the wooden symbols of his personal god	14
Market
Evil Forest – bodies of twins and people with terrible diseases are discarded here	148

Food
Yams-foo Foo – food made from yams. Yams serve a chief role in the annual Feast of the New Yam. Yams were a crop to be raised by men.	113,141
Bitter Leaf Soup—a soup prepared with the vegetable called bitterleaf	141
Palm Wine – fermented palm sap used celebration and ceremony	19, 117
Kola nut – food used to greet visitors and guests	19,117
Alligator Pepper – offered with kola nut to visitors
Cassava—a woman’s crop	164
Preparing food for a feast	112
Status
Unoka—Okwonko’s father, a man of low status	5
Efulefu	143, 154
Okwonko—the main character,	8, 27
Ezeugo – a man of high status	10
Ezeudu –a description of the funeral of a man of high status	123
Osu—outcast. Having been dedicated to a god, the osu was taboo and not allowed to mix with the freeborn in any way.	155
Ozo—the name of one of the titles or ranks	8, 18, 23
Status
Status of women	20
Okwonko beats his wife, women raising cassava, men having more than one wife	29, 38, 164, 18, 10
Gender Roles-	52-54
Clothing
Jigida—string of waist beads worn by women	71
Bride—hair and clothing	71, 118
Uli—a dye used by women to draw patterns on the skin
Business dealings
Family
Okwonko beats his wives
Sports
Wrestling	46
Ilo--	42, 46
Medicine
Iba--fever	76, 85
Farming
Men- raise yams	33
Women—raise cassava	23, 33, 164
Festivals
Feast of the New Yam and the Week of Peace	36

