Our first formal Open House seemed very well received and attended. Please be sure to share feedback with your myself or your child's teacher. Continue to reach out to your child's teacher with questions, ways you can offer support and ideas. We welcome all input and we are constantly learning and trying to improve. Keeping all the information straight is hard I know! I work in the building and sometimes I pretend to be in charge, and I miss things as a parent all the time which leads me to believe that we all can use multiple avenues of communication and several reminders. We always want your support and input and within each classroom a community of parents develops over the three-year cycle just like it does with students. We can only be successful if we continue to engage families in this journey of development both as students and as families! -Shannon

"Education is a shared commitment between dedicated teachers, motivated students and enthusiastic parents with high expectations." Bob Beauprez
