Classic Tale Twist

Note: This genre refers to stories in which an author takes a classic story such as Cinderella, Little Red Riding Hood, or Alice in Wonderland and puts their own twist on it, creating their own story using ideas or characters from the original tale.

1. Upon which classic tale is this story based? Provide textual evidence.
2. Explain the difference between an idea or a character that appears in both the original tale and in this twisted version.
3. Draw a picture of the setting, and attach it to the back of this form.
4. Describe the antagonist in your own words. Are they the antagonist in the original tale? Provide textual evidence as to why they are the antagonist in this book.
5. What is the climax of this story? Explain, using textual evidence.
6. Did you like this book? Why or why not? Provide textual evidence to support your position.
