1. Illustrate on an 8"x 11" paper the main setting, or describe and explain why it is the main setting in 3 sentences underlining 10 key, descriptive words.
2. State in your own words what the main conflict was that the protagonist had to work through.
3. The climax is the height and turning point of the book. Explain what problems were resolved at this point.
4. The theme of the book is the moral message the author is saying; it implies value judgment (_____should_____). Using this format, explain the theme of this book in your own words.
5. From whose point of view is the author writing this book? Who is doing the narrations and speaking: the protagonist, an invisible third person, different characters at different times, the writer? Decide who is speaking and provide 2 sentences from the book to prove and support your opinion.
6. Did you like this book? Why or why not? Provide 2 examples from the book (no more than a paragraph each) to show your opinion. Pcp.
