1. Select two of the following: secrets, unexplained happenings, problems, curiosity, chance, or error. Explain how they help in the development of the plot.
2. Describe the setting in this book in your own words. Then give two parts in the story that also show what the setting is. Include quotation marks in the author's description of the setting.
3. How did you feel at the beginning, middle, and end of the story? Use five words to suggest a mood that you felt at the most exciting part.
4. Select one main character from the story and describe his/her importance to the plot. Predict and describe how he/she would react to a new situation that you could create (for example being confronted by a gang of thieves or discovering that a little sister had been kidnapped).
5. The climax is the part in the book where the most action occurs. Where is the climax in your book? Explain why you think it is the climax. What happens immediately after the climax?
6. Did you like this book? Why or why not? Give 2 examples from the book to support your opinion.
