

Lay out the welcome mat: We are pleased to have three new members officially take their spots on the SPS Board of Directors: Nikki Lockwood, Jenny Slagle and Kevin Morrison. A huge thank you to outgoing members Sue Chapin, Deana Brower and Brian Newberry. We appreciate you! Read more ...

Pick & choose: For those who are interested in having their student attend a school other than their neighborhood school, the priority enrollment window will be open from Jan. 1- Feb. 15. During this time, people can complete and submit an application to the first-round enrollment lottery, and make changes anytime through Feb. 15. Learn more ...

Snow time like the present: As winter whirls around us, it's a good time for a reminder that inclement weather can cause school schedules to be adjusted in several ways: bus delays, two-hour delayed school start or school closure. Learn more ...

Time for a change: With the addition of three new middle schools in the coming years, school boundaries will need to be adjusted following the guidelines approved by the SPS School Board. We recently selected members for the Boundary Adjustment Committee. Their job will be to study options and recommend attendance boundary adjustments to the School Board. Learn more ...

December 2019 edition
This email was sent by Spokane Public Schools, 200 N. Bernard, Spokane, WA 99201