Seniors: are you working on your Create What's Next!? It is not too late to complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) or apply to post-secondary programs.

Remember, if you are a College Bound Scholar, completing the FAFSA is one of the requirements to receive your scholarship.

If you have any questions or need help with any paperwork be sure to stop by the Career Center.

If your plan is to attend a post-secondary institution after graduation make sure you are meeting all your application, financial aid, and testing deadlines.

Not sure what your plans are? Stop by the Career Center and get information, do career exploration, and chat with Deb.

FAFSA went live Oct 1

Within the first 24 hours over 10 million students apply, just saying...

Money for college!
